Transport for Wales is supportive of the principle of faster trains between South Wales and London. However, the Welsh Government is leading on negotiations with Grand Union Trains on their proposal to run services between South Wales and London, with Transport for Wales kept informed of developments. As a result, we do not hold information on any negotiations or agreements for the use of class 802's on Grand Union Trains' proposed South Wales to London service.

The use of Transport for Wales branding for the image on Grand Union Trains' website has been authorised.

If you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact Transport for Wales.
